The University of Florida Center for African Studies presents

The Health in Africa Working Group

2013 – 2014 Schedule
Mondays, 11:45 – 12:45, 471 Grinter Hall

September 16th: Kevin Fennelly (University of Florida)
TB Research at UF’s Emerging Pathogens Institute

October 7: Meredith Marten (University of Florida)
HIV/AIDS and PEPFAR: From Emergency to Sustainability in Tanzania

November 4: J. Terrence McCabe (University of Colorado)
Human and Livestock Demographies: Implications for Livelihood Diversification and Human Health among East African Pastoral People

December 8th: Alyson Young (University of Florida)
Food Security, Household Consumption, and Child Nutrition among Tanzanian Pastoralists

January 27: James Webb (Colby College)
The History of Malaria Eradication in Africa

February 24: Dorothy Hodgson (Rutgers University)
How FGM Became a Medical Issue, Rather than a Human Rights Issue, in Tanzania

March 17: Mark Hunter (University of Toronto)
AIDS in South Africa

April 14: Claire Wendland (University of Wisconsin)
Medical Education in East Africa

---

To subscribe to the UF Health in Africa email list, send an email to UFHIAWG@lists.ufl.edu with the line subscribe (UFHIAWG)(your first name)(your last name) e.g.: subscribe UFHIAWG-L Jane Doe.
For more information, please contact Sharon Abramowtiz at sabramowitz@ufl.edu (352-273-4763) or Alyson Young, at agyoung@ufl.edu (352-392-1896).