

AFLI

UF | Center for African Studies
UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA

African Flagship Language Initiative

Akan/Twi, Amharic, French,
Swahili, Wolof, Yoruba, and Zulu

AFLI is a special initiative of the Boren Awards. AFLI presents an opportunity for intensive language study of Akan/Twi, Amharic, French, Swahili, Wolof, Yoruba, and Zulu, and for cultural immersion by participating in domestic and overseas language programs.

PARTICIPANTS MAY START WITH ZERO LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY THROUGH ADVANCED PROFICIENCY

FUNDING OPPORUNTITIES

BOREN SCHOLARSHIPS Undergraduate students are required to participate in an 8-week full-time domestic summer intensive program offered in-person on the campus of the University of Florida in Gainesville in June-July.

BOREN FELLOWSHIPS Graduate students are required to participate in an 8-week full-time domestic summer intensive program offered in-person on the campus of the University of Florida in Gainesville in June-July.

** Maximum awards are determined by duration abroad

Boren Awards fund study in Africa

Algeria	Sierra Leone	Cote d'Ivoire
Liberia	South Africa	Ethiopia
Morocco	Tanzania	Ghana
Mozambique	Uganda	&amp; MORE
Senegal	Morocco

WHO CAN JOIN?

- ☒ Boren awardees
- ☒ UF Students
- ☒ Non-UF students

8 WEEK PROGRAM

- Full-time Language courses
- Native Language Instructors & Partners
- Homestays with local families
- Experiential learning activities involving cooking, cultural visits, and excursions

For more information, contact James Essegbey at aflি@africa.ufl.edu, or visit: <https://africa.ufl.edu/academics-programs/african-languages/aflি/>